

Press Release

June 23, 2008
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CMH Manufacturing, Inc. Named 2008 Manufacturer of the Year

Atlanta-CMH Manufacturing, Inc., of Waycross, Georgia is the recipient of the 2008 Manufactured of the Year for the Industry Recognition Awards as designated by the Georgia Manufactured Housing Association (GMHA).

Entries for the GMHA Industry Recognition Awards, Manufacturer Segment were scored on company professionalism, local/state government, community, and Association involvement in addition to consideration of the entry's significant contributions to the factory-built housing industry.

CMH Manufacturing, Inc., of Waycross, Georgia, has been in operation since 1988. As a division of Clayton Homes, it is one of the largest, fully integrated companies in the factory built housing industry. Gary Taylor, General Manager, stated the "It is an honor to be recognized by GMHA and our industry with this prestigious award."

The GMHA is a private, not-for-profit trade association representing over 250 factory-built home builders, retail sales centers, suppliers, service companies and community/developers in the state of Georgia.